

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. CLERK'S OFFICE

ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE need of a Catalogue of the current Book Publications of the United States, simple in plan and comprehensive in matter, has been much felt by booksellers and bookbuyers. From causes apparent to all, Foreign Books have become so expensive here that but few, comparatively, are bought, American Houses republishing at cheaper rates such as the popular taste demands.

A COMPLETE CATALOGUE of American Publications would make an expensive and unwieldy book, not adapted to the wants of the majority of readers. The publishers of this work have, therefore, adopted the plan of a Catalogue of such Miscellaneous Books published in the United States, as are most likely to be called for by the public, confining it to reasonable limits, arranging the works alphabetically (according to the names of the authors,) and giving the prices fixed by the respective Publishers, with a view to making it practically useful as a medium between booksellers and bookbuyers. It is the intention of the publishers to issue, from time to time, other editions, cataloguing, by supplementary lists, all new books.

The Publishers would call especial attention to the advertisements of such enterprising Houses as have availed themselves of this opportunity to address five thousand intelligent readers. These advertisements will be found throughout the body of the work, arranged alphabetically.

THREE GOOD BOOKS.

"TRUMPS" AMERICAN HOYLE;

— 12 —

Gentleman's Handbook of Games.

CONTAINING clear and complete descriptions of all the games played in the United States, with the American Rules for playing them, including Whist, Euchre, Bésique, Critchagen, All-Fours, Low, Poker, Brag, Piquet, Écarté, Boston, Casino, Chess, Checkers, Backgammon, Dominoes, Billiards, and a hundred other games. This work is designed to be an American authority for all the various games of skill and chance. It has been prepared with great care by the editor, with the assistance of a number of gentlemen players of skill and ability, and is not a re-hash of English descriptions of obsolete games, but a live American book, expressly prepared for American readers. 12mo., cloth; nearly 600 pages, with illustrations.

PRICE, $2.00.

The American Boy's Own Book of Sports and Games.

A work expressly designed to amuse and instruct American Boys at all times and seasons, both in and out-doors. This work contains six hundred pages, and is illustrated with over six hundred engravings and diagrams, drawn by White, and other American and English artists, and engraved by N. Orr, in his best style. It is also embellished with eight full-page ornamental titles, illustrating the different departments of the work, and printed on tinted paper. The publishers were three years preparing this work, and assure the public that it is printed in the best style, upon fine sized paper, and is one of the most acceptable books that could be presented to a boy of any age. Large 12mo., 600 pages, printed on the finest paper; bound in cloth, with gilt side and back, illustrated with over 600 engravings.

PRICE, $3.50.

FULL GILT, $4.00.

Wright's American Book of 3000 Practical Receipts.

Containing over three thousand Receipts in all the useful and Domestic Arts; including Confectionery, Distilling, Perfumery, Chemicals, Varnishes, Dyeing, Agriculture, etc., etc. 12mo., 300 pages.

PRICE, $1.50.

HARPER'S PICTORIAL HISTORY
OF
THE GREAT REBELLION
IN
THE UNITED STATES.

PUBLISHING IN NUMBERS.

THE work will be issued in Numbers, as rapidly as is consistent with thorough and careful preparation. Each Number will contain 24 pages, of the size of Harper's Weekly, profusely illustrated, and printed in the best manner, from large and legible type.

This is one of the great enterprises of the day. The value of the work becomes more apparent as the numbers advance. The historical matter is really valuable; the sketches of individuals and incidents are admirably drawn, not only by the pen of the historian, but by the pencil of the artist; and both combined will make, when bound, one of the marked histories of this war, if not the great history of the war. There are official documents on every page, at the bottom, which add much to the value of the work. It will be found on the center-tables of thousands of our countrymen.—Boston Post.

Careful, comprehensive, minute, and graphic.—N. Y. Observer.

It bears unmistakable evidence of having been prepared with great care.—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

It promises to be a very valuable as well as a very interesting book—one to which the eye of the child will turn for the illustrations of scenes with the names of which his young eyes have become sadly familiar; and the eye of the older reader will be attracted by the careful, studious, and conscientious manner in which the editor prepares his historical matter.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

Of priceless value for preservation.—Boston Advertiser.

A careful, comprehensive, graphic, and minute record of the origin and progress of the war, and in the profuseness, costliness, elegance, and completeness of its illustrations, far exceeding any other history yet attempted.—Christian Times.

Executed in the highest style. No expense, it is evident, has been spared to make the work attractive and instructive. It furnishes the best history of the times that we have seen.—Pittsburg Christian Advocate.

EDUCATIONAL WORKS.

JUST PUBLISHED:

1. Methods of Instruction ; or, That Part of the Philosophy of Education which treats of the Nature of the several branches of Knowledge, and the methods of Teaching them according to that Nature. By JAMES PYLE WICKERSHAM, A. M., Principal Pennsylvania State Normal School, at Millersville. 12mo. $1.75.

2. Ritter's Comparative Geography. Lectures on Comparative Geography. By CARL RITTER, late Professor of Geography in the University of Berlin. Translated for the use of Seminaries and Colleges, by Rev. WM. L. GAGE. 1 vol., 12mo. $1.50.

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL,
Millersville, Pa., April 27, 1865. }

I have read Ritter's "Comparative Geography," as translated by Wm. L. Gage, with very great satisfaction. It is a comprehensive, compact, and clear statement of the great principles of Geographical Science. Geography, as presented in our ordinary treatises, is not at all a science, but merely a collection of facts and fragments; in this book, however, all details find their proper place in a philosophical system. No teacher of Geography should be without the book.

J. P. WICKERSHAM.

3. School Economy : A Treatise on the Preparation, Organization, Employment, Government, and Authorities of Schools. By JAMES PYLE WICKERSHAM, A. M., Principal of the Pennsylvania State Normal School, at Millersville. 12mo. $1.50.

[From the Massachusetts Teacher.]

We heartily invite the readers of the Teacher to examine this excellent volume, believing that it will tend to hasten the time when teaching will be recognized as a profession, and the teacher be so fitted for his work as to command the respect of the wise and good.

4. A Guide to Experiments in Philosophy. Frick's Physical Technics; or, Practical Instructions for making Experiments in Physics and the construction of Physical Apparatus with the most limited means. By Dr. I. FRICK, Director of the High School at Freiburg, and Professor of Physics in the Lyceum. Translated by Prof. JOHN D. EASTER, D. D. 1 vol., 8vo. Ample Illustrated. $3.00.

[From Silliman's Journal.]

We cordially commend this book to all Teachers of Physics, and especially to those whose situation or circumstances cut them off from access to a good collection of Physical Instruments. * * * While the most expert demonstrator may gain some useful hints from Dr. Frick's book, the less experienced Teacher and Student will find it an available adjuvum in the Physical Laboratory.

WEBSTER'S UNABRIDGED DICTIONARY.

Every Family and Every Student Should Have

WEBSTER'S NEW DICTIONARY.

It has pre-eminent excellence in

1. ETYMOLOGY, or the derivation of words. "We have had no English dictionary nearly so good in this respect."—North American Review, January, 1865.

2. VOCABULARY, or the words of the language. It has 114,000—10,000 more than any other dictionary.

3. DEFINITIONS.—As Horace Mann said of former editions, "Webster's is the best defining dictionary in the English language"—the late thorough revision has made it yet more perfect in this particular—that for which, pre-eminently, a dictionary is wanted.

4. SPELLING.—Webster's orthography, as now presented, and in its essential features, is the recognized standard in the large majority of the issues of the press in this country.

5. PRONUNCIATION.—It is affirmed by the very best orthoëpists of the country, that Webster's is now the best pronouncing dictionary of the language.

6. PICTORIAL ILLUSTRATIONS, 3,000 in number, in Andrews's best style, illustrating all departments in art and science.

7. TABLES.—Some of them of an entirely novel character. One of them, that of fictitious names of persons and places, alone worth the price of the book.

8. LATEST, as well as best, and thus brought down to the present time.

9. MECHANICAL EXECUTION.—From new electrotype plates, fine paper, and the Riverside Press.

10. MAGNITUDE.—The largest single volume ever published; contains thirty per cent. more than the old Webster; twenty-four per cent. more than Worcester; and six times as much as the common English Bible, including the Apocrypha.

In One Volume, of 1840 Royal Quarto Pages,
AND VARIOUS STYLES OF COMMON AND ELEGANT BINDING.

Cloth, $25.50.

Cloth, Gilt, $31.00.

Sheep, $33.00.

Half-calf, or Morocco, $39.00.

THE singular excellence of Mr. Parton's biographies is universally acknowledged, and they have already taken their place in the front rank of works of their class. A greater success and larger sale than have ever been attained by similar works in this country, prove their appreciation by the public.

The following works, either of which may be had separately, are included in the series:

Life of Benjamin Franklin.

The Life and Times of Benjamin Franklin. By JAMES PARTON. 2 vols., crown 8vo., with portraits on steel. Cloth, extra, $6; half-calf, $9.

General Butler in New Orleans.

A History of the Administration of the Department of the Gulf in the year 1862, with an Account of the Capture of New Orleans, and a Sketch of the Previous Career of the General, Civil and Military. 16th Edition. Life of Aaron Burr.

The Life and Times of Aaron Burr, Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army of the Revolution, United States Senator, Third Vice-President of the United States, etc. Seventeenth Edition, revised and enlarged. 2 vols., crown octavo, with portraits on steel. Cloth, extra, $4.50; in half-calf, extra, $7.50.

Humorous Poetry of the English Language.

From Chaucer to Saxe; including the most celebrated Comic Poems of the Anti-Jacobin, Rejected Addresses, The Ingoldsby Legends, Blackwood's Magazine, Bentley's Miscellany, and Punch. With more than two hundred epigrams. With notes, explanatory and biographical. 7th Edition. Crown octavo, 689 pages, with portraits on steel. Cloth, extra, $3; in half-calf, extra, $4.50.

MR. PARTON is, says the London Athenaeum, "a writer of whom the people of the United States have reason to be proud."

The New York Independent styles him "our best writer of biography."

"So sympathetic, so pains-taking, so indefatigable is this biographer, that the reader may differ from him on a hundred points without ever losing patience—may condemn his views as narrow, and his judgment as precipitate, yet delight in the fullness of his information, the patience of his research, the freshness of his style, and heartily rejoice that our country's notables have found so competent and lucid a limner. There have been at least thirty attempts at the life of General Jackson, not one of which, except Mr. Parton's, will ever be looked through after the year 1870; and with the sole exception of Franklin's own inimitable outline, and the summaries embodied in Encyclopedias and compends of Biography, no one will hereafter read any Life of Franklin but Parton's."—Horace Greeley.

ROBERTS BROTHERS,
Boston, Mass.

A NEW AND STIRRING SET OF JUVENILES.

EACH VOLUME HANDSOMELY ILLUSTRATED.

These are the only works published relating to Adventures in the Gun-boat Service on our Western waters. The Author speaks from actual experience.

Frank, the Young Naturalist,
Frank in the Woods,
Frank on a Gun-boat,
Frank before Vicksburg,
Frank on the Lower Mississippi.

By H. C. CASTLEMON,

THE "GUN-BOAT BOY."

These works are the productions of a young officer, who has been serving his country in the gun-boat service on our Western waters. They are written in a chaste style, filled with stirring adventures, and are admirably adapted to interest and improve the rising generation. The tone of the entire series is healthy, while it takes a wide range, detailing the adventures, amusements, and exploits of Frank and his Cousin Archie, from early boyhood to the end of the Rebellion, against which they both fought.

5 volumes, elegantly printed and bound, in a neat box, $6.25.

Any volume sold separately, price.....$1.25.

Sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of price.

For sale by all Booksellers in the United States.

PERIODICALS

PUBLISHED BY

TICKNOR & FIELDS, BOSTON, MASS.

NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW.

THIS venerable Quarterly has entered on the second half century of its existence, under the most favorable auspices. It will continue under the editorial charge of Prof. JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL and CHARLES ELIOT NORTON, Esq., who, in concert with the Publishers, will strive to preserve to the REVIEW the high literary character it has heretofore borne.

THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW is published Quarterly, on the first days of January, April, July, and October, in numbers of about three hundred pages each, containing matter equal to four ordinary octavo volumes.

TERMS.—Six Dollars a year, or One Dollar and Fifty Cents per number.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY.

This Magazine, which, in its peculiar departments of literature, stands confessedly without a rival in America, offers this year unusual attractions. Besides the complete papers, in every number, from its regular contributors, among whom are the most eminent writers in our literature, the current volume contains serials by DONALD G. MITCHELL, (The Marvel,) Mrs. H. B. STOWE, and the author of "Ten Acres Enough," of striking originality and merit.

TERMS.—Four Dollars per year for single subscriptions.

CLUB RATES.—Two Copies for Seven Dollars; Five Copies for Sixteen Dollars; Ten Copies for Thirty Dollars, and each additional copy Three Dollars. For every Club of Twenty Subscribers an extra copy will be furnished gratis, or Twenty-one Copies for Sixty Dollars.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS.

This new Illustrated Magazine for Boys and Girls has already attained a circulation of over FIFTY THOUSAND COPIES, which is the best evidence of its worth. It is designed to amuse and instruct youth of both sexes, and furnish, in a handsome and attractive form, rational and profitable literary food. Its pages are filled with contributions from many of the BEST WRITERS in the language, as Capt. MAYNE REID, Mrs. STOWE, EDMUND KIRKE, GAIL HAMILTON, and its illustrations are the work of the most skillful artists in America.

TERMS.—Two Dollars per year for single subscriptions.

CLUBS.—Three Copies for Five Dollars; Five Copies for Eight Dollars; Ten Copies for Fifteen Dollars; Twenty Copies for Thirty Dollars, and an extra copy gratis to the person forming the Club of Twenty.

THE TWO MAGAZINES, the Atlantic and Our Young Folks, will be sent to one address for Five Dollars.

POSTAGE must be paid at the office where the Magazines are received.

ALL SUBSCRIPTIONS ARE PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.

NEW POEMS BY WM. P. BRANNAN.

Vagaries of Vandyke Browne,

AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY IN VERSE.

BY WM. P. BRANNAN,

AUTHOR OF "THE HARP OF A THOUSAND STRINGS."

1 Vol., elegantly Printed on Laid Paper, and exquisitely Bound in New Style Cloth. $1.75.

Sent by Mail, Postage Paid, on Receipt of Price.

MR. BRANNAN is well known, to the people of the West especially, as an artist, and an occasional contributor of poetry to the Press. His "HARP OF A THOUSAND STRINGS," a burlesque sermon, has been long recognized as the best of its class. The present volume is one of superior merit for the wit and humor of the Autobiography, the pathos, imagination and smooth versification of the Occasional Pieces scattered in profusion throughout. This work is destined to place Mr. BRANNAN high in the rank of American Poets, and to give him position as a leader among the Bards of the West.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"The breezy freshness of the prairie pervades his thought, and breathes in many of his lines."—Portland Daily Press.

"The collection of Poems does honor to the author, whose name is so familiar to Western people, that the mere announcement of the work will be sufficient to secure a host of readers."—Cincinnati Gazette.

"This autobiographic verse is made to link together a number of fugitive poems which have the true gold of poetry, without alloy."—Cincinnati Commercial.

"The Poems display a tender and refined sensibility, and the book is one to buy."—Boston Saturday Evening Gazette.

"The author manifests more than ordinary skill in versification."—Salem Register.

THE PRESIDENT'S WORDS:

Being Memorable Sentences from the Addresses, Speeches, and other Writings of ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

This volume will be found to contain some of the most eloquent passages, and the most weighty, forcible, and pregnant sentences to be found in the language, and which will endure as long as literature itself. 16mo. $1.25.

THE THINKING BAYONET.

BY JAMES K. HOSMER.

Author of "Color Guard," of which the New York Evening Post says: "There has not appeared, since the war began to show its influence on literature, a book which gives us so vivid a sketch of the soldier's life; so sharp and yet gracefully outlined a drawing of the transport, the camp, the march, the hospital, the fight."

The new work is written with equal vigor and point, and includes much of the same personal incident and adventure which gave the "Guard" such success. 12mo. $1.75.

Berlin! Being the sixth volume of Miss Lander's admirable and favorite "Spectacle" Series. Profusely illustrated. $1.
